Specialized Investigative Services

Threats of physical danger, technological theft and mounting domestic security issues have become significant factors in the 21st century. In most cases, the modern-day thief or criminal is better equipped than the victim. At Vision Security Consultants, Inc., we utilize the latest technologies and tools to provide clients the best protection available.

VSC is a licensed investigation firm. Our professional investigators bring sophisticated skills, diverse expertise and a network of law enforcement and military resources to each assignment. All investigators on staff have current or prior law enforcement experience as detectives in large metropolitan cities. Our investigators have expertise in the areas of robbery homicide, military intelligence, drug recognition and expert testimony in the areas of personal injury and a variety of civil issues.

We specialize in:

Guarding Services

Exceptional people; extraordinary training. That's what separates our guard services from the competition. At Vision Security Consultants, Inc. we have stringent selection criteria that focus on a broad range of skills and experience. All new guards, no matter their level of experience, must complete our rigorous training and evaluation course. These factors help us provide the most reliable, trustworthy and capable security guards in the industry today.

Statistics show that a highly visible security guard is one of the best deterrents against criminals and criminal action. The high profile attribute of this type of security provides an effective curb simply by its presence. Whether armed or unarmed, all VSC guards are fully equipped with the most modern, state of the art radio communications and security equipment, and are backed by experienced 24-hour field supervision.

Far too often, small and medium sized businesses sacrifice security because of perceived excessive cost. When an incident occurs, the actual cost of providing appropriate security becomes nominal when compared to the expense of the loss. Vision Security Consultants, Inc. provides the same level of professional experience whether a company is a large corporation or a small business and can keep losses in check.

Organizations employing their own guard services may want to investigate ways to provide better security while more effectively managing costs. Providing assistance in this area, Vision Security Consultants, Inc. performs physical site surveys and coordinates with architects, engineers and designers to build superior security systems. We analyze site usage and vulnerability to design cost-effective security solutions for individual needs.

Whether utilizing VSC's guarding or consultation services, be assured that your organization will be provided the best possible information and protection available. Contact us today to learn more about our premier guarding services.
